Exclusions

The above Service Care Contracts do not include the costs of labour and materials used in the rectification of faults on, or the replacement of auxiliary items such as pipework, radiators, valves, cylinders, tanks, flue pipes, isolation valves and electrical wiring. The cover also excludes the replacement of heat exchangers on Bronze and Silver contracts, the replacement of the appliance in the case that spare parts are no longer available or in cases where work is required to rectify faulty workmanship carried out by another party. Guernsey Gas shall not be responsible for any work caused by failure of the electricity or water services, damage caused by fire, lightning, flood, misuse, or any other extraneous cause.

Terms & Conditions

a) Period of Contract

The Contract Cover will be effective from the date that the charges apply. Charges are applied from the first of the month. The Contract shall continue unless/until:

- i) Either party notifies the other party in writing of their wish to terminate the Contract;
- ii) If payments are not received from the customer.

Customers will be notified in advance of changes in Contract charges or terms and conditions.

The annual service of appliance(s) will be carried out at any time throughout the year. Customers will be contacted via a postcard and requested to arrange a service appointment. If the customer does not respond, a reminder will be sent within six weeks. If the customer does not respond to the reminder the service may be missed. No refunds will be made under these circumstances.

The customer cannot reassign the Contract to another address or appliance. The contract will be terminated after a final meter reading or change of ownership of the property.

b) Payments

The customer will pay on receipt of a monthly statement in advance.

Alternatively the customer can pay by monthly banker's order in advance.

c) Condition of the Gas Appliance

Acceptance of the appliance onto a Service Care Contract does not infer that it has been satisfactorily installed. Guernsey Gas will not accept liability for any failure attributable to the inadequate installation of an appliance.

d) Acceptance of Gas Appliances onto the Service Care Contracts

Acceptance onto a Service Care Scheme is dependent upon the appliance being in full working order. At the time of the first visit an inspection will be made, any work required to bring the appliance into full and proper working order may be charged for.

Guernsey Gas reserve the right to cancel the Contract for reasons of safety, accessibility, unavailability of spare parts and/or age or condition of the gas appliance.

The customer shall ensure that the appliance is used in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions.

e) Sub-Contractors

Guernsey Gas reserve the right to use approved Gas Safe nominated sub-contractors to carry out Service Contract work.

f) Liability

The customer agrees to indemnify Guernsey Gas against any, claim or claims whatsoever and howsoever arising in connection with the appliance(s) to be serviced under the Service Contract, other than any claim or claims associated by the default or negligence of Guernsey Gas or its agents.
